

Aaron Booker, Albertville, AL

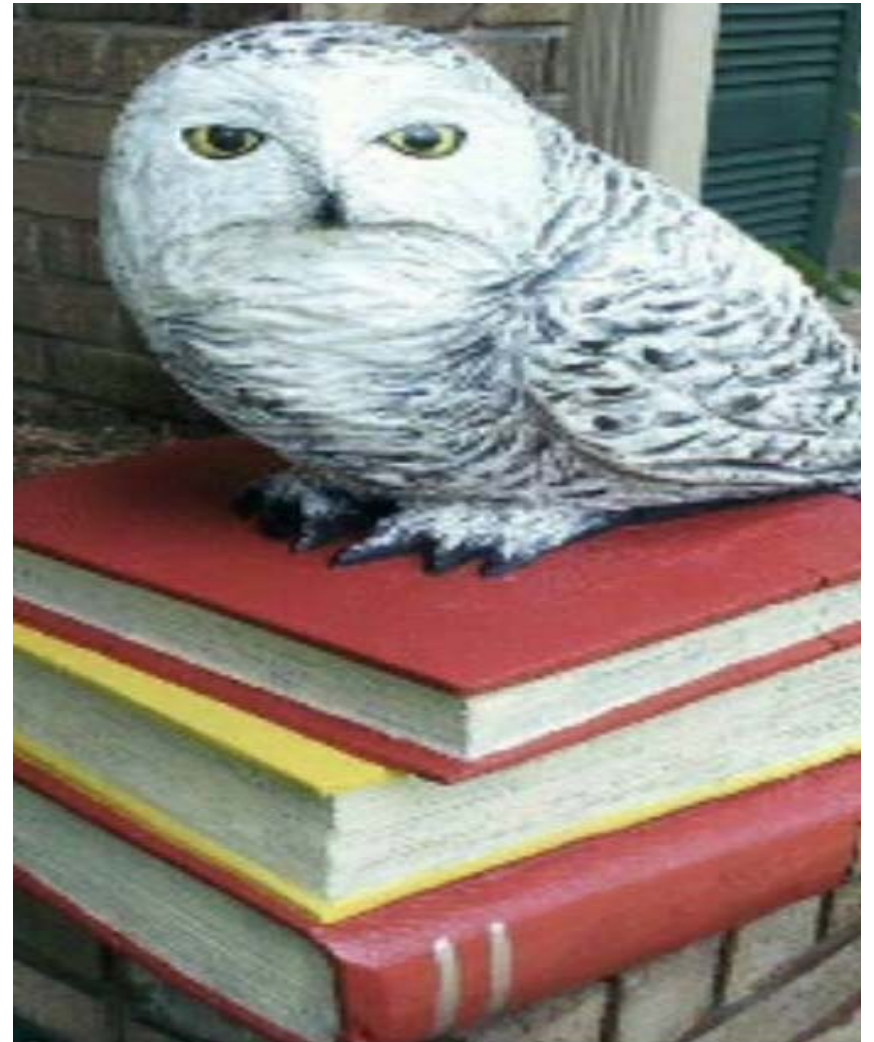

Aaron will be demonstrating his skills and approach to finishing sculptures using painting techniques.

Aaron Booker, 38, from Albertville Alabama, began carving in 2001. He has always been very artistic since a child, started off drawing and from there tried many different mediums that lead him to chainsaw carving. In 2012 Aaron left the home repair/remodeling business to carve full time. He travels to several states in the northeast and south for shows and competitions. He loves using his talent to make a living. He always dreamed as kid that one day he would make his living off of something he created and he is now living his dream.
